

Introduction to AS Level / Level 3 Programmes (Full-Time)

The Introduction to AS Level / Level 3 Programmes will run from September until June and is designed to prepare you for AS Level study or Level 3 courses. It is an academic course that will enable you to build upon your GCSE profile if you currently haven't met the entry requirements required for AS/Level 3 programmes or need to improve upon some of your GCSE profile.

This is located in the Sixth Form Academy (SFA).

Entry Requirements

A minimum of 1 C Grade and 3 D Grades at GCSE to include Maths/ English and Science or recent knowledge of working within these disciplines.

Career Prospects

Upon successful completion of this programme, you will gain five GCSEs, which will contribute to the minimum requirement of 6 GCSEs needed for progression onto an AS/level 3 programme of study.

Course Modules

A suite of GCSEs to be studied - including a choice of English, Maths, Biology, Digital Technology, L2 Sustainability in Action, Welsh 2nd Language, Sociology and Religious Studies (a min of 5 subjects must be studied).

Total study time is approximately 2.5 hours per GCSE plus 2 hours tutorial, totalling 14.5 hours.
