

Level 1 Diploma in Art, Design and Media - UAL (Full-Time)

The UAL Level 1 Diploma in Art, Design and Media is a full-time course based in Newtown that is designed for students who wish to gain experience and skills in Art, Design and Creative Media production. At the end of the one-year course, learners can progress to a Level 2 Diploma in Creative Media Production & Technology, Art and Design or Performing Arts. The syllabus offers a wide range of practical and academic activities, including learning traditional art skills, Illustration, photography, animation, video production, editing and design skills. Creativity and imagination are key, whilst good analytical skills are important in realising your productive ideas. If you are committed to further study or a career in media production and the creative arts, then this is the course for you. We are in the Creative, Visual and Performance (CVP) department.

Entry Requirements

Interview prior to enrolment. 2 GCSE grade 2(F) or above, or an appropriate level 1 qualification.

Career Prospects

Successful learners have an opportunity to join Level 3 Diploma/extended Diploma courses in Creative Media, or Art and Design or Performing Arts, leading them to seek a place at university, or a higher apprenticeship. Many creative media skills transfer well into the workplace i.e., communication skills, creativity and problem solving.

Assessment

Your work is assessed on a formal and informal ongoing basis, with frequent oral and written feedback with grading. Your Final major Project is assessed as Pass, Merit or Distinction.

Additional Costs

There will be additional course-related costs which include gathering an A3 sketchbook in addition to gathering basic stationary including a set of drawing pencils, a rubber and a sharpener.
